WHEREAS, The growth and development of America and the State of South Dakota have depended and will depend greatly on an efficient, comprehensive transportation system; and,

WHEREAS, America's transportation system continues to provide the avenues of communication and mass distribution facilities so vital to the social and economic well-being of the people of this State as well as the nation and the world; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting during the year 1980 that we should recognize the benefits the transportation system has provided to the development of our society and the progress of all citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 11-17, 1980, as in South Dakota in recognition of the vital role of transportation in our State, and in connection with the national observance thereof, and I urge all citizens to enjoy and participate in its observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty

William Janklow
